Col. C. C. Cooley Dead.

Col. C. C. Cooley died at his home at the Cooley ranch, near Pinetop, Sunday after a long illness incident to old age, being about (as we can learn) 85 years old. Burial was made at Fort Apache Monday with military honors, he having served as a soldier.

Col Cooley was one of the most interesting characters who ever lived in this section, and was broad-gauged and liberal minded. It is claimed that he was possibly without an enemy in the entire southwest, something extraordinary for any man to lay claim to after living on the frontier for so many years, as he had lived here since away back in the 70's, locating the Showlow ranch about '76 or '77.

A wife and six children survive. The children are, Chas. P. Cooley of Holbrook, Bert and Don C. Cooley of this county, Mrs. A. L. Amos, Mrs. Chas. H. Pettis and Mrs. Del A. Penrod, also of this county. —Snowflake Herald.

The Pneumonia Season.

The cold, damp weather of March seems to be the most favorable for the pneumonia germ. Now is the time to be careful. The quicker a cold is gotten rid of the less the danger. As soon as the first indication of a cold appears take Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. As to the value of this preparation, ask anyone who has used it. Adv.

In the matter of the petition from residents of Vernon, Springlake and vicinity and also signed by residents from Navajo county residing at Taylor and Snowflake, asking the board of supervisors to declare the road known as the "Dick Greer Automobile Road" as a county road, said road leading from Concho via Springlake to Taylor. S. 1913,) and that then the board would take some action in the matter.

The advertising proposition of George Wharton James "The author" that was presented to the board of supervisors for their consideration, to decide whether they wanted one chapter in his new book "Arizona the Wonderland" on Apache county and the White Mountains, at a price of $200.00 or else the county to subscribe for 150 copies of the book at $3.50 each. The matter was fully considered and it was decided not to accept his offer at this time, in view of the fact that the book was to go to press the early part of March, and the Board felt that it did not give them sufficient time to have copies of the chapter presented to them for their consideration and approval.

Road Bond Convention.

Last Saturday representative men from the various communities of the county met in Holbrook to discuss the proposed road bond proposition and to formulate a plan for the proposition to go before the voters of the county. Messrs. Jos. W. Smith, Samuel F. Smith and W. E. Stratton composed the committee with P. P. Pitchlynn as honorary from Snowflake, met with the convention. It was decided that $160,000 would be needed, and the convention agreed in a very harmonious manner to work for the election of the bonds when submitted by the board of county supervisors. No doubt an election will be called for the near future. —Snowflake Herald.

Apache and Yuma counties were well represented in both branches of the third legislature, Colter of Apache and Winsor of Yuma aided by the senior senator from Cochise, made a trio of statesmen who were far above the average. The representatives from both Apache and Yuma were ever on the side of human rights. Such men do not measure virtue, human welfare, and moral advancement by the gauge of the sordid medium of exchange — the big round dollar. —The Messenger, Phoenix.
